Many From Redwood City, San Carlos Participate in Peninsula Symphony

John Archibald of 114 Dexter St. is one of the many from Redwood City and San Carlos who are members of the Peninsula Symphony Orchestra of "Music on the Peninsula."

The group will give its first concert on Sunday, May 16, in the Burlingame High School auditorium with Nathan Koblick conducting.

Mr. Archibald took up music as a hobby about 22 years ago and played the bass tuba in various bands in the San Joaquin Valley, principally in the Fresno Municipal Band. About four years ago while serving overseas in Australia he took up the bass violin, which is the instrument he now plays in the symphony.

Mrs. Gertrude M. Paul of 454 Jeter St. is another member from Redwood City. Mrs. Paul, who plays the cello is known through her previous affiliations with the Sequoia High School orchestra and the Palo Alto Symphony. She is interested in ceramics, gardening and church work and is also active in Girl Scout work.

Another member from Redwood City is Clifton Woodhams, who plays the clarinet in the symphony. His experience dates back to 1912 when he played in the Stanford Band and since that time he has been playing in orchestras of various types.

One of the younger members of the orchestra is Duwayne Fulton of 270 Cedar St. in San Carlos. Duwayne plays the harp and is also active in theater work.

Two outstanding members of the orchestra are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schweid of San Carlos. Mr. Schweid is first violinist and Mrs. Schweid (Virginia Klassen) is harpist with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra.

"Music on the Peninsula" is an organization of music minded people on the Peninsula, from South San Francisco to San Jose and from the Coastside to San Francisco Bay. In addition to the symphony, other allied activities will be sponsored; such as, a Peninsula Ballet and Peninsula Chorus, a spokesman said.

The orchestra's members are drawn from every city on the Peninsula and they meet every Monday evening in the Music Building of the San Mateo High School at 7:30 p.m. Rehearsals are open to musicians of varying degrees of ability and applicants are welcomed through the Adult Center of the San Mateo Junior College.

Contractor Held On Driving Charge

Theodore J. Toller, general contractor of 467 Oberlin St., Palo Alto, will appear in Police Judge J. A. (Al) Branson's Burlingame court tomorrow at 10 a.m. on a charge of driving while drunk.

Toller was arrested late Saturday by Burlingame officers Alfred Nultemeier and William Kilbourne on El Camino Real near Rosedale Ave. He was released on $250 cash bail.

Compromise Settles City Council Battle On Hilton Successor

BY BUD SPRUNGER

W. M. (Bill) Werder, an insurance operator, a former navy lieutenant and a former Stanford University track star, is the new Redwood City mayor.

As he stated in his acceptance speech, Werder is a compromise mayor. His nomination was made by H. E. (Rowdy) Holmquist, one of the two other councilmen who had led in early council balloting.

At a caucus session Friday the council was split, four members voting for Carl (Ike) Britschgi and the other three for Holmquist.

Rather than see his rival elected, Holmquist's backers and Holmquist offered their three votes to Werder which with the mayor's own vote was a majority. Werder had previously voted for Britschgi.

In nominating Werder, Holmquist said that "harmony" was the main issue and that personal ambition would be secondary.

Councilman Arthur Swift then nominated Britschgi. Although Werder cast the deciding vote, he did not cast the last vote. The count was 3-2 in his favor when City Clerk Ralph S. Dodge asked him for his vote. Werder voted for himself and the election was on ice.

Councilman Arthur Swift, who cast the last vote, favored Britschgi. The three who voted for Britschgi were Robert (Bob) Spillers, Britschgi and Swift. The majority was made up of Floyd D. Granger, Holmquist, Albert H. Morgan Jr. and Werder.

On the motion of Britschgi, the election was declared unanimously in Werder's favor, the three Britschgi voters changing their votes after the roll call.

Werder, pointing out that he was a compromise choice, asked the council for harmony in his acceptance and stated that the new council should be one of the city's better councils.

The only indication that there may not be "harmony" was Britschgi's remark to Granger when the councilman offered to continue as head of the council disaster relief committee.

Britschgi pointed out that all former committees were disbanded with the seating of the new council and said that Granger sought to keep himself in power. Granger offered to resign and then Werder declared that all former committees were disbanded and that he would appoint new ones soon.

Werder has been a gasoline station manager, an automobile firm operator, an insurance operator and a navy lt. cmdr. Between 1942 when he entered service and 1945 when he returned home, he served as radar officer and fighter director on the USS Saratoga, and took part in the Marshall and Gilbert Islands campaigns and the lower Coral Sea campaign.

Prior to the mayoralty election, Spillers and Morgan were sworn as new councilmen and Granger and Holmquist as repeaters.

The remainder of the new council's first meeting was taken up with speeches of congratulation for Werder and statements of future plans.

Granger said the city street and water problems should be "placed on the ballot," indicating that council may ask for an additional bond issue to improve those systems.

Morgan noted that the city was growing rapidly and asked that City Mgr. E. A. Rolison take steps to enforce precautions against disasters. He said that all public halls should be kept uncrowded and their doors equipped with doors which will give way and open when pushed outward by a crowd. He said exit signs should be kept illuminated in each hall holding more than 100 persons.

He also said that state law requires seven square feet of space for each person at a dance.

Resolutions were passed authorizing the mayor and the city clerk-treasurer to sign city salary checks and authorizing Rolison, the mayor and the treasurer to enter the city safe deposit vault.

R. C. Stahl's Fete Daughter's Birthday

Gloria Marie Stahl celebrated her 20th birthday last week with a surprise dinner party at Ramor Oaks given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stahl of 67 Northumberland Ave. Guests included her sister, Carolyn; her brother, Lawrence, and Charles Kneubuhl of Redwood City.

NEW COUNCILMEN, NEW PLANS—Ed R. Burton (right), who was elected mayor last night, goes over plans for the coming term with William F. Klose (center) and Walter E. Moltke, who were named to the council last week for the first time and were sworn in during ceremonies last night.

BELMONT'S NEW DEAL—Five new councilmen were seated last night when the Belmont City Council met for the first session following last week's election. Giving the oath is Mrs. Catherine Heartsner, city clerk. The councilmen (left to right), George Campbell, Lester Reetz, Ray Rhodes, Bayley Kohlmeier (also named mayor) and Edward Les Vesconte.

Kohlmeier New Mayor In Belmont

A new Belmont City Council last night unanimously voted in Bayley Kohlmeier, San Francisco tax attorney, as mayor of the city, replacing Harry T. Walden who lost his council post at the polls a week ago.

After being voted into the office, Kohlmeier announced that the new councilmen, all five of whom ran on a "don't vote for one; vote for all" reform ticket, would not make any changes in city personnel until councilmen had time to study all the city departments.

Kohlmeier also appointed the regular council committees at the organizational meeting and named Councilman George Campbell, a retired army air corps colonel, to the key post of police commissioner.

Besides Kohlmeier and Campbell, the other three new councilmen sworn in last night were Lester Reetz and Edward Les Vesconte, both members of the city planning commission, and Ray Rhodes, San Francisco radio man.

Before turning over the gavel to Kohlmeier, Walden, in his last official act as mayor, welcomed the new councilmen and told the audience of more than 50 people that as time went on the citizens of Belmont would appreciate the work put in by the retiring councilmen.

Retiring councilmen besides Walden include Earl Miller, George Pyatt, Walter Guild, and James Sampson.

As his commissioners, Kohlmeier named the following: Campbell, police; Reetz, finance; LesVesconte, health and welfare; and Rhodes, streets and sewers.

RC Mechanic Held On Drunk Charge

Percy W. Yates, 46, a mechanic who lives at 1259 Lincoln Ave., was arrested by the California Highway Patrol last night on a charge of drunken driving.

Officers said that Yates' car knocked down four rural mailboxes near Redwood City. He is to appear Apr. 30 before Justice of the Peace E. I. McAuliffe.

SWAN SONG—Thirty-two years as a Redwood City councilman ended for George McNulty (right) last night when he retired from active duty as a city official. Mayor W. W. Hilton, who relinquished his seat to William M. Werder, also retired after last night's session.

Hilton, McNulty End Duty As Veteran RC Councilmen

George McNulty and W. W. Hilton stepped down from Redwood City Council positions last night following the adjournment of a lame duck council's last meeting.

After a canvass of votes which showed officially that H. E. Holmquist, Floyd D. Granger, Robert Spillers and Albert H. Morgan Jr. had been elected, Hilton made the only "swan song" speech.

He devoted most of his short talk to thanking McNulty for the 32 years the senior council member had served the city before finally losing an election. Hilton said that if McNulty had been well enough to campaign the results at the last election might have been different.

Both McNulty and Hilton thanked those who had backed them in the past, and Hilton said he would make it a point each council meeting night to telephone McNulty and remind him that they could both go to bed instead of sitting through a mid-night session.

Fall From Tunnel Fatal to SSF Man

The death of Luigi Grassi, 70, longtime South San Francisco resident late yesterday, was attributed by police today to a fall onto the Southern Pacific tracks from the top of tunnel 5 at Tunnel Hill near South San Francisco.

Friends said Mr. Grassi, who was retired from the Bethlehem Steel Co., was accustomed to taking walks on the hills overlooking the Bay. The nature of the fatal head injury indicated a fall and there was no evidence he had been struck by a train.

Mr. Grassi leaves his wife, Giocanda Grassi; three sisters in Italy, Rose, Josephine and Antonia; and two brothers-in-law in South San Francisco. Peter Magnaghi and Joseph Magnaghi.

He was a member of the Società Lombardi of South San Francisco.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 8:30 a.m. at the chapel of Nauman, Muzio and Lincoln. Requiem mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. at All Souls Catholic Church with entombment at Holy Cross Cemetery.

The Rosary will be recited tomorrow at 7:45 p.m.

Mr. Grassi was a native of Santo Antonini, Techino, Italy.

GARDEN: Rolly Wants Ideas Instead of Flowers While Ill

BY ROLLY LANGLEY

Still ailed, still under the gun, still dictating this column. But don't send flowers—send ideas. Send little paragraphs—the things you've found helpful, which others could use and which I've never brought up. In other words—here's where YOU can put the notes you've always felt I should have discussed. I don't think I'll be laid up much longer, but I'll certainly use any such material you send in, giving full credits, no matter how healthy, strong, robust and peppy I might think I felt.

The trouble with the human body is that we don't think about it when everything's going along satisfactorily. What pleasures we pass up, simply because we forget. For example, I might be getting a lot of fun right now out of thinking, "my stomach isn't hurting, my head feels fine, my feet and ankles aren't hurting." And no doubt there are a thousand other things functioning so properly that I'm not aware of them. But instead of getting a lot of enjoyment out of them, foolishly I concentrate on thinking how lousy I feel, simply because my back hurts. And how hot the heating pad gets when it's on, and how cold it gets when it's off.

The other day I was talking with a man in government office, and he was saying unofficially, "if you could just inform your readers of the WHOLE story, they would scramble to plant Freedom Gardens. You wouldn't have to lay it on for them—just give them ALL the facts on this international situation."

And I said, "Okay. Just let me have them, and I'll pass the information along. That's more or less what I'm being paid to do, anyway."

But he said this was impossible. And through his vagaries, I finally perceived that he didn't have the WHOLE STORY either. And I asked him where he'd go to get it, and he said only top fighters in the government had it, and they weren't spilling top secrets.

So about that time I became confused enough to revert to my original idea that, without benefit of top secret stuff, the average man can pretty well put two and two together and come out with four, unless he's been scared stiff by rumors.

One thing about lying in bed, you get a chance to weigh the news in the paper better. What a bargain in words, the modern daily is! There are so many factors working in so many different parts of the world, I doubt if the "top fighters" know for sure how things are going to turn out.

It looks like there would be a lot less pressure for war, if there was just plenty of food, from continent to continent, around the globe. I used to write that food was being used as a political football, back in 1943-44. Now, food is more than a weapon of war. It is a lever for ideologies.

I think we should bear in mind, and keep remembering that while some people in this country aren't getting enough to eat because food prices are so high, in large areas of the world millions of people are on starvation rations.

What we produce helps us more than anyone else. But there's an indirect benefit to the hungry in other lands. Our government is going to send food, and there'll be more of it, if the millions of greenhumpers grow just a fraction of what we're able to.

This is the best planting season of the entire year, for the next thirty, forty-five days. Make use of your space, your opportunity. Become aware. Don't fail to as I, in failing to concentrate on how good I feel most places, recognize the necessity, just because your family is getting plenty to eat, right along. Otherwise, you'll be missing the opportunity for better living, just think about the back, and feel uncomfortable. Guess I didn't express that clearly, but I'll bet you get the idea. Hope so.

Seeks Judges' OK To Use SF Jail

Sheriff James J. McGrath Tuesday petitioned San Mateo County's two superior judges to approve use of the San Francisco County Jail No. 2 for use by prisoners of this county.

Judges Aylett R. Cotton and Edmund Scott said that they would approve the petition.

The sheriff's action was taken to make legal the plan adopted by the supervisors to relieve congestion in the county jail.

McGrath cited statistics to show that the county jail is overcrowded. His petition stated in part that the "San Mateo County jail is unfit, unsafe and unhealthy for the confinement of prisoners in excess of the normal capacity."

Normal capacity, McGrath stated, is a maximum of 56, including men, women and children. He declared that there have been as many as 88 in the jail.

During the first three months of this year, 5200 have been booked in at the jail, 396 women and 266 juveniles. The daily average for this period is 58 men, five women and three juveniles.

The daily capacity, McGrath stated is 48 men, four women and four juveniles.

Attached to the petition was a letter from Daniel C. Murphy, sheriff of San Francisco County, to the effect that the cost for each prisoner would be about 80 cents a day. He stated that no contract was necessary.

Shooting Victim Leaves Hospital

Edward Caldwell, 39-year-old Colima man shot and seriously wounded last week, left Junipero Serra Hospital late Tuesday, the sheriff's office reported Wednesday.

Caldwell insisted on going, overruling the protests of doctors, Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore said. Caldwell was released only after he signed a waiver releasing the doctors from responsibility.

The bullet which perforated Caldwell's body nicked an artery, according to physicians, and would have been fatal a fraction of an inch closer.

Colma Wife Held On Assault Count

A complaint charging Mrs. Marjorie Ruth Cadwell, 26-year-old Colma housewife, with assault, with a deadly weapon has been signed by Dep. Sheriff Jack O'Brien.

Mrs. Cadwell is accused of shooting and seriously wounding her husband, Edward Cadwell Sr., 39, Tuesday night. Cadwell is said at Junipero Serra Hospital to be out of danger.

Cadwell was shot, officers said, when he threatened to take away from his wife her three children by a former marriage. She is held in lieu of $2500 cash bail.

41 County School Trustees To Be Named on May 21 Ballot

Contests in nine of San Mateo County's 33 school districts which are due to elect trustees on May 21 were apparent today.

Supt. of Schools Pansy Jewett Abbott reported that 49 persons have filed declarations of candidacy for the 41 school trustee positions to be filled.

Three persons had filed, up to noon today, for two positions which are to be filled on the board of Sequoia Union High School. They are Merritt W. Hosmer, incumbent; Charles P. Burgess and Donald R. Lilly.

The sharpest race in view probably will be in the San Pedro Elementary School Dist. where three candidates have filed for the post held by Mrs. Alma Bublak. The candidates are Kenneth S. Fitch, Irving H. Yorks and Antoinette Ibanez Brown. Mrs. Fitch has not filed.

Another "hot" contest is brewing in Daly City, for trustees of the Jefferson High School Dist. The two incumbents, Mrs. Pearl M. Jones and E. A. Welsenburger, both have filed for re-election. They will be opposed by Julius F. Castelan and Pearl M. Jones.

Other candidates who have filed papers in Miss Abbott's office: Menlo Park—Ben G. Holland. Incumbent John W. Morey, clerk of the board, has not filed.

Ravenswood—George F. Gayler, incumbent.

San Carlos—K. F. McMillan, incumbent.

Belmont—Velda C. Row. Harry E. Chamberlain, clerk and incumbent, has not filed.

Greensburg—Edgar L. Norris, incumbent.

Portola—Charles E. Strong, incumbent.

Half Moon Bay High—Joseph F. George, incumbent. Two to be elected, Joseph Murtagh, the other incumbent, has not filed.

Pescadero High—M. R. Mattel, incumbent; Antonio J. Duarte. Two to be elected. Incumbent F. A. Bloomquist has not filed.

San Mateo High—Carleton W. Herrmann, Everett W. Landon, incumbents.

San Mateo Junior College—Charles N. Kirkebride, incumbent; Murray Draper, J. Howard Walzer. Two to be elected. Carleton W. Herrmann, the other incumbent, not filed.

B'nai B'rith to Honor President, Initiates 75 New Members

Mrs. Benjamin A. Stein, outgoing president, and 75 new members will be honored Wednesday evening when the Peninsula B'nai B'rith Women hold their annual "President's Night" Wednesday night at the San Mateo Masonic Hall.

Open to members and friends, the evening will begin with a program.

To further mark the occasion, formal initiation ceremonies will be held for the large class of new members enrolled in B'nai B'rith work within the past fifteen months. All initiates are to be guests of the chapter while other members will share on a "no host" basis.

The membership drive, in progress since January, 1947, will terminate on President's Night with the awarding of prizes to those members who sponsored the greatest number of new members. Competition has stimulated membership acquisition and this year's roster of newcomers tops all previous records, according to Mrs. Robert H. Klein, membership chairman.

The Initiatory Degree, dramatized especially for this meeting by Mrs. Jack Charnow, will be performed by the Meses. Jerome Gordon, Jack O. Wain, Ralph W. Brill, Robert H. Klein, Benjamin A. Stein and Miss Sylvia Stabin. "The Song of Ruth," an integral part of the ritual, will be sung by Mrs. Gordon accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Harold Shanzer.

Mrs. Philip Chandler, vice president, heads the committee on arrangements which includes Mrs. Robert Shapiro, program; Mrs. Jack Wain, telephone contact, and Mrs. Robert H. Klein, reception of new members.

Reservations to the dinner are being taken and can be made by contacting Mrs. Chandler at San Mateo 4-4516 or Mrs. Wain at San Mateo 4-0320.

High School Bond Drive Set by Board

Plans for publishing the $1,250,000 bond issue and 25 cent special tax to be voted on in the May 21 school election were discussed Friday by the Sequoia High School Board of Trustees.

Supt. A. C. Argo reported that a citizens' committee to publicize the two propositions was being organized and would hold the first meeting Tuesday night at 7:45 o'clock in the school library.

Argo urged that board members attend the meeting to discuss procedure in carrying out the bond campaign with the committee.

The board also discussed a letter prepared by Argo which would be sent to all 30,000 registered voters in the school district explaining the two propositions. Argo was instructed to get approval from the district attorney's office before sending out the letter.

Argo told board members that students would not be allowed to take part in the election campaign after Trustee W. W. Hilton declared it had been brought to his attention that a Sequoia history class had held a debate and class discussion on "Should Sequoia teachers get an increase in salary?"

Hilton said that such things could hurt the chances of the election. Argo and representatives of the Sequoia Teachers Assn. pointed out that the debate was apparently an isolated example and that the faculty was almost unanimously opposed to student participation of any sort in the election campaign.

Friday night the board also: Granted an additional year's leave of absence to Mrs. Erna F. Hunter, former head of the Sequoia homemaking department.

Accepted the resignation of history instructor Chester Shamel and Mrs. Arlene Looftow, secretary to the counselors. Appointed Jack N. Marks and Donna Nord, respectively, to fill the two vacancies.

Decided against appointing a trustee to act as a member of the Sequoia Teachers Salary Evaluating Committee, but agreed to meet with the teachers to discuss the salary question.

Adjourned until May 14 when bids on a 72-passenger school bus will be opened and the board will decide on the faculty for the coming school year.

Swore in new Trustee Morton Brewer, appointed to replace Stuart Capps who resigned last month.

RC Group Asks Ruling on Hughes

Santa Clara County Superior Court was asked today to force Palo Alto officials to allow Langston Hughes, Negro poet, to speak in the high school auditorium Wednesday.

The school district had cancelled Hughes' speaking permit on the grounds he is under investigation by a state legislature committee.

The petition filed today said this order refused Hughes the right of free speech granted by the state constitution. It asked a writ of mandamus to force the school to allow Hughes to appear. The Redwood City Council for Civic Unity and the Palo Alto chapter of National Association for Advancement of Colored People filed the petition.

RC Motel Sold For $57,500

Sale of the Redwood City Motel on Bayshore Highway, south of Redwood City, for approximately $57,500 was reported today by the county recorder's office.

The property, one and three quarters acres, was sold by Lola E. Strokoski to George M. Sampson.

Safeway Trims Them Before Weighing

(SO YOU SAVE MONEY)

We'll give you DOUBLE the number of Rib Lamb Chops you buy (they won't cost you a penny) if ever you get SAFeway Rib Lamb Chops not trimmed this money-saving way

"TAIL" OF EACH CHOP (the end portion of bone, and excess fat) cut off by Safeway before we weigh your rib lamb chops on the market scales. It gives you chops that cook and eat better... that fit better in the pan and on a platter

TIP END OF CHINE BONE removed from each chop before we weigh your purchase of rib lamb chops at Safeway. It means there's more good-eating meat in Safeway's lamb chops—less waste in each pound you pay for

It means more tender, juicy meat in every pound you pay for... a bigger value for your meat dollar at Safeway!

YOU SEE ABOVE how Safeway removes excess waste, bone and fat from rib lamb chops before weighing them. And the test-purchase report presented here shows you how important it is to compare trimming as well as price.

We prepare other cuts in similar fashion—each according to its special requirements. This waste-free cutting is part of Safeway's Guaranteed Meats plan. We regularly trim our meats this way.

When you compare meat prices, remember that Safeway's prices always are on the TRIMMED cut... free of excess bone, waste and fat... ready for cooking.

If ever you're not satisfied the meat you buy at Safeway is trimmed the money-saving way we say, just show it to the manager of the Safeway store where you bought it.

If your Safeway rib lamb chops (for example) are NOT trimmed as shown above—you get DOUBLE the number of rib lamb chops you buy without a penny's extra cost (and without quibble or argument!)

Safeway buys nothing less than the top government grades of beef (all beef sold at Safeway is U.S. Government graded)... nothing less than the top grades of lamb, pork and veal.

More. We hold our meats the full number of days needed to bring out peak flavor and tenderness. And we safeguard their goodness with temperature controls. Come prove for yourself—there's more good-eating at less cost in Guaranteed Meats from Safeway!

Test purchases by Independent Bureau show you can save money on meat

We asked an independent research organization to check methods of trimming meat here.

And we secured proof that it pays you to check trimming as closely as you check price when buying meat.

In 201 representative markets in this area where they bought meat they found a great variation in the way meat is trimmed.

In 97% of the markets other than Safeway, rib lamb chops purchased were not trimmed before weighing.

Had the rib lamb chops been first trimmed and then weighed (as Safeway does), the average saving would have been more than 11¢ per pound. Actually, customers of some of these stores would have saved amounts up to 23¢ per pound.

This survey shows unmistakably that thousands of housewives in this area are paying regular meat prices—which are high enough these days, goodness knows—for waste that is thrown away!

Example: For rib lamb chops purchased UNTRIMMED shoppers paid an average of over 18¢ more for six chops than if these chops had been trimmed BEFORE weighing. In some markets as much as almost 36¢ more!

Example: For rib roasts purchased UNTRIMMED shoppers paid an average of over 54¢ more per 6-lb. roast than if these roasts had been trimmed BEFORE weighing.

Example: For T-bone steaks purchased UNTRIMMED shoppers paid an average of almost 22¢ more per 2-lb. steak than if these steaks had been trimmed BEFORE weighing.

Example: For legs of lamb purchased UNTRIMMED shoppers paid an average of over 42¢ more per 6-lb. roast than if these roasts had been trimmed BEFORE weighing.

Wherever you buy meat you are entitled to money-savings that result from proper trimming of each cut before it is weighed. Insist that your butcher trim this way. If he refuses, why not buy at a market where this kind of trimming is done?

3 New Mayors Take Over In N. County

Three north-county cities had new mayors today, while two others, as well as Menlo Park and Atherton reelected the incumbents at special city council meetings.

In Millbrae Harold Taylor was named to succeed William Leutenegger; in San Bruno Edward McGuire Sr. replaces Joseph J. Hearne, and in Daly City A. J. Gaggero took over in place of Melvin Battye.

Meanwhile, in Menlo Park Charles P. Burgess got the unanimous vote of his fellow councilmen for another term as mayor, and James B. Howell won similar approval in Atherton.

Other mayors reelected included Ernest Ingold, Hillsborough; U. S. Simonds Jr., Burlingame, and Leo Ferko, South San Francisco.

The voting in most cities was reported as peaceful, although fireworks had been indicated.

Only San Mateo County cities which did not join the week of elections were San Mateo, which elects on the odd-years, and Colma, which intended to vote last Tuesday, but found that its ballots were lost under the city's police car.

Swift Explains Stand on Mayor

City Councilman Arthur Swift, a candidate for a post on the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, said last night that he had been misunderstood during the electioneering to pick the mayor for Redwood City.

Councilman H. E. (Rowdy) Holmquist, he said, believed he was to get Swift's second vote for the job, although Swift gave it to Carl (Ike) Britschgi.

Swift explained that when he had talked to Holmquist he had promised the candidate only that Holmquist was his second choice. Holmquist, he continued, interpreted this to mean that Swift would deliver his second ballot to him. What he meant, Swift said, was that he would vote for Holmquist in the event his first choice, Britschgi, was out of the running.

Train Hits Car; Arrest RC Man

Frank B. Cosgrove Jr., 30-year-old accountant of 28 Claremont St. came out lucky Monday night when his car had a run-in with a southbound commuter train, but not so lucky a few minutes later when he met up with San Carlos police.

Cosgrove, officers said, drove his car from the south end of the San Carlos train depot onto the railroad tracks from which the car was shoved a moment later by the slow-moving southbound 6:08 p.m. train.

Investigating officers arrested Cosgrove for investigation on drunk driving, driving without a driver's license and trespassing on railroad property.

Cosgrove was held in lieu of $250 bail at county jail and is to appear on Apr. 21 before Judge Rupert Johnson.

RC Man Wins Compensation

Ernest J. Moore, 66, of 1113 Clinton St., Saturday was awarded $29.14 weekly compensation by the State Industrial Commission.

Moore was injured while employed as a night watchman at the S. H. Frank & Co., 416 Battery St., San Francisco.

It was ruled that his compensation begin as of May 25, 1947 and continue for the duration of his disability or the further order of the commission.

William L. Peterson, 38, of 1089 Herman St., San Bruno, was awarded $24.70 weekly compensation by the commission for the injury he incurred.

Peterson contracted virus encephalitis while working as a poultry handler at the Petaluma Poultry Company, 1103 Market St., San Francisco.

Seven Alumni Named to Aid Stanford Presidency Choice

Pres. William C. Kellogg of the Stanford Alumni Assn. today announced appointment of a committee of seven alumni to assist the university's board of trustees in the selection of a new president.

Formed at the request of the trustees, who have named their own special committee to select a successor to the late Dr. Donald E. Rissider, the committee is:

Frank F. Walker, '18, Atherton, chairman, former financial president of Stanford, first vice president of the alumni association, a partner in Dean Witter & Co., San Francisco.

William C. Corbus, '33, Menlo Park, former All-America guard, San Francisco food broker.

Mrs. Martha Alexander Gerbode, '32, San Francisco, wife of Dr. Frank L. A. Gerbode, member of the university's medical school faculty.

Thorpe Orders Scoggins Probe

The driving record of George F. Scoggins, 46-year-old San Francisco genealogist picked up by Redwood City police as a drunk driver, was demanded by Police Judge W. H. Thorpe.

Scoggins was found guilty of drunk driving by Judge Thorpe after a three-hour trial Wednesday.

Before passing sentence, Judge Thorpe asked Chief Criminal Dep. Dist. Atty. John K. Weeks to supply him with certified copies of Scoggins' previous convictions on the same charge. The San Francisco man is reported to have from five to seven convictions.

Sentence will be passed on Scoggins on Apr. 30, at 10 a.m. In Judge Thorpe's court he faces a maximum of $500 fine and six months in jail.

Redwood City police did not sign another complaint prepared by the district attorney's office, charging Scoggins with his previous convictions. If the prior convictions had been charged, the case would have gone before a justice court, in which the maximum possible penalty would have been $1000 fine and a year in jail.

Scoggins' attorney, Russell Ainsworth, declared that the prior convictions could not be taken into account by Judge Thorpe in passing sentence, since the convictions were not charged on the complaint.

He planned to submit authorities to justify his viewpoint.

Scoggins' wife, Velma, was found innocent of drunk driving, but guilty of being drunk. The pair was arrested by Redwood City police Mar. 27. Mrs. Elaine McKenzie of Menlo Park, a carhop at Smith's Drive-in, testified that the car struck the curb, and that Mrs. Scoggins later tried to make her husband eat some food.

He has one brother, Carl, of Menlo Park and two sisters, Mrs. Otto Ratig of San Carlos and Mrs. John Peterson of Palo Alto. The couple is planning a June wedding.

Blood Bank Reverts To War Time Schedule

To meet the increased demand made on its facilities, the San Mateo County Blood Bank today announced it has gone back to its war time schedule for taking blood from donors.

New hours for donors are Mondays, 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.; Wednesdays, 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.; Thursdays 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.; Saturdays, 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

The blood bank reports that increase in population reflected in increasing demands from hospitals for blood to be used in emergency transfusions, makes necessary the longer new schedule.

The upward swing in demands, which are instantly fulfilled day or night, comes from employee groups, fraternal organizations and individuals who have blood credits at the county bank, it was announced.

Harmony On Council? ... Not Yet

BY BUD SPRUNGER

That city council harmony Redwood City voters are all the time hearing about looked about as far away today as a five-cent cup of coffee.

The new council met in caucus Friday night to choose a mayor and before the session broke up the seven men were divided, 4-3, and both sides were feeling nothing but grievances for each other.

As the situation now stands, Councilman Carl (Ike) Britschgi has four ballots favoring him and Councilman H. E. (Rowdy) Holmquist has three. And neither is sure what the outcome will be Tuesday when the council will officially and publicly elect a mayor.

Friday night's caucus was called specifically for harmony. Councilmen decided it would be best to decide the mayorship in advance and to come up Tuesday with a closed, sweet, harmonious arrangement to which they could all subscribe.

New Councilman Albert H. Morgan Jr. was named temporary chairman.

He began by declaring that the mayorship in Redwood City, which has a city manager, is merely a courtesy job and of no great significance. Since Councilman Floyd D. Granger has already been mayor, he continued, he shouldn't be considered again. Since Councilman Arthur Swift is running for a post as supervisor, he shouldn't be considered either, Morgan and Swift agreed.

New Councilman Robert (Bob) Spillers then said he didn't want to be considered because he was new to the council. Morgan said the same condition applied to him.

That left Councilman W. M. (Bill) Werder, Holmquist and Britschgi in the running. A secret ballot was run off and it turned out that Britschgi had three votes, Holmquist two, Werder one and Granger one.

For the second ballot it was decided to vote verbally. Holmquist started by voting for himself and then Swift voted for Britschgi. This enraged Holmquist who understood he had Swift's second ballot in the bag. After some heated feelings had become apparent, councilmen decided they had better stick to secret voting. The papers were passed, marked and counted, and there it stood: Britschgi four and Holmquist three. At this point Swift and Spillers hurriedly left and Granger declared the voting so far had been "unofficial" and the thing would be finally settled Tuesday.

Most fired councilman Saturday was Holmquist. He said that his three votes came from himself, Morgan and Granger. And he couldn't figure why he didn't get Spillers' and Swift's votes too. Five months ago, said Holmquist, Britschgi was promised a first vote by Swift. But just before the meeting Swift promised Holmquist the second vote, Holmquist said.

Spillers, Holmquist continued, called Holmquist to his place Friday and promised him a vote. Holmquist claimed this vote was promised on everything up to and beyond "Scout's Honor," and consequently Holmquist can't understand why it wasn't produced when the ballots were counted.

After the meeting Britschgi said he didn't know how the thing would finally turn out and that he was pretty upset about the whole thing. Holmquist wasn't happy either.

Others were trying to figure why there was such a life and death battle in progress for a courtesy job since the mayor of Redwood City doesn't actually do anything but preside at council meetings and sign various papers presented by the city manager who makes the city tick.

One thing is sure, however: if those guys were running for Mayor Queen the voting couldn't be tougher.

Used Car Law, Calif. Square Plans Voted

BY BUD SPRUNGER

Redwood City councilmen Monday night introduced an ordinance regulating the sale of used cars, passed a resolution authorizing City Atty. Cuthbert Currie to start an eminent domain suit to gain California Square, and introduced an ordinance changing the Board of Review.

The used car ordinance will require used car salesmen to obtain a permit before they can sell cars and require them to post a $2000 bond guaranteeing clear title to any car they may sell.

The eminent domain suit is the first step in a city campaign to turn the park over to San Mateo County for use as a courthouse site. Once it gains a clear title to the park, the city can ask voters to approve turning it over to the county.

Although the city has operated the park for years, it does not have a clear title to the land because the original deed was destroyed in the 1906 earthquake.

The other ordinance will change the name of the Board of Review to "Personnel Board," increase its membership from three to five, and give it the responsibility for the city's personnel problems.

Council also: Asked Currie for a recommendation concerning a state Judicial Council request for suggestions concerning the improvement of the state's lower courts. Refused to lease a city pumping station at Bayshore Hwy. and Harbor Blvd. to Joseph Smith, 127 King St.

Referred to the chamber of commerce advertising committee a request from the Mission Trails Assn. for a $150 advertising fund.

Granted John DePolo, 56 Alameda de las Pulgas, permission, subject to fire and building department approval, to install an underground gas tank.

Fled a letter from John Rebach, 1418 Arguello St., protesting the installation of a liquor store at Broadway and California St. The council said such regulation was up to the state board of equalization.

Referred to City Mgr. E. A. Rolison a traffic and safety commission recommendation that the crown on Valota Rd. be reduced at the Woodside Rd. intersection.

Decided to consult with the State Hwy. Dept. in an effort to get signals for El Camino Real and to get signal installed at Whipple Ave. This action was taken on a commission recommendation.

Instructed the water department to install two additional fire hydrants at Redwood Village.

Approved a suggestion by Councilman Floyd Granger that the Park Commission obtain 400 free redwood trees from San Mateo County to line a Community Park creek.

It's Spring: And Mayors Will Bloom

BY BUD SPRUNGER

Mayors are scheduled to blossom like dandelions tomorrow in all parts of the Peninsula. Redwood City, San Carlos, Belmont, Atherton, Hillsborough, Burlingame, San Bruno, South San Francisco, Millbrae and Daly City are all scheduled to hold city council sessions then and pick the new government heads.

Redwood City councilmen will hold two meetings this week. Tonight the old council will hold its swan song session and face an agenda of five items. Tomorrow the new council will meet to elect a mayor.

The mayoralty situation at last reports was nicely out of hand all the way around. Councilman Carl (Ike) Britschgi is supposed to have four votes for the job and Councilman H. E. (Rowdy) Holmquist the other three. There is a possibility of a shift of votes. W. W. Hilton, the present mayor, declined to run in the last election.

Both in San Carlos and Belmont the present mayors were defeated at the polls last Tuesday. Beaten in San Carlos was Mayor Patrick J. Kearns and beaten in Belmont was Harry Walden.

The Redwood City agenda for tonight includes:

A report by City Engineer Glenn M. Jain on a project to improve Johnson St. and nearby alleys.

A report by City Atty. Cuthbert Currie on an American Legion request to have the city subordinate its interest to Legion property on El Camino Real. The Legion, in effect, made the city an heir to its property and now asks that the heirs' rights be subordinated so the Legion can obtain a loan to construct a building.

A report by Currie on a proposal for the Navy to erect two quonset huts at Sequoia High School. Council has approved the project if it can do so legally.

Consideration of a new ordinance which would change the name of the Board of Review to the Personnel Board, increase its members from three to five, and give it full power over city personnel problems.

The introduction of a new and used car ordinance.
